At ₹40 lakh per MBBS seat, Adesh varsity charges 20-fold

HUGE DISPARITY  State govt rules say students should be charged ₹2.2 lakh first-year tuition fee at time of admission, while total fee should be around ₹13 lakh in the management quota will pay ₹6.6 lakh in the first year. However, as per the prospectus of Adesh University, even those who will get admission on merit in the government quota will have to pay fee equal to that for students who will get seats in the management quota. The fee section of the prospectus states that tuition fee of ₹6.6 lakh will be charged in the first year from all students except NRIs/foreign nationals. The fee will keep increasing by 10% in the subsequent years, taking the total fee for the five-year course to ₹13.28 lakh. Students who will get admission will stand forfeited. "In addition, he will have to pay the balance fee for the entire course. For this purpose, he/she will have to furnish, at the time of admission, a bank guarantee or surety bond for the amount equivalent to the balance fee of the entire duration of the course along with an affidavit duly sworn in by the candidate and his parents and a copy of the prospectus that as per the no, the university should get back after look at it. CHANDIGARH: Adesh University, Bathinda, is charging ₹40.28 lakh as tuition fee for the MBBS course at the time of admission, even though the Punjab government rules say that students should be admitted in the government quota with a fee of ₹2.2 lakh for the first year. The move to charge five-year fee in one go has upset parents of medical aspirants.

ASSOCIATION OF PARENTS OF MEDICAL ASPIRANTS SLAMS UNIVERSITY FOR DEMANDING ENTIRE FEE IN ONE GO

Unlike in the past, when Baba Farid University of Health Sciences (BFUHS), Faridkot, held centralised counselling for MBBS admissions for the entire state every year, this time Adesh University is holding its own counselling on June 17.

According to a state government notification (March 7) to take MBBS seats out of the government quota — which is 50% of the total seats (based on merit) in any institute — students will have to pay ₹2.2 lakh for the first year. The annual fee will keep increasing by 10% in subsequent years, taking the total fee for the five-year course to ₹13.42 lakh. Students who get admission will stand forfeited. "In addition, he will have to pay the balance fee for the entire course. For this purpose, he/she will have to furnish, at the time of admission, a bank guarantee or surety bond for the amount equivalent to the balance fee of the entire duration of the course along with an affidavit duly sworn in by the candidate and his parents and a copy of the prospectus that as per the notification, students will have to pay ₹2.2 lakh, he said, to get back after look at it.
