Should these occur during the recess any vacancy in the Executive Committee they shall be empowered to fill up such vacancy except in cases where a summons has been issued, for a meeting of the Council when the Council itself shall elect. Should any member of the Executive Committee be absent from two consecutive meetings without leave of the Committee, he shall ipso facto cease to be a member of the Committee. If the period of leave exceeds one year a vacancy is thereby created.

In case of the death of the Registrar or his incapacity from his illness or on leave when the Council is not in session the Executive Committee shall appoint a person to perform temporarily the duties of Registrar. The Executive Committee shall grant leave to the Registrar in accordance with the principles laid down in the Civil Service Regulations of the State.

The Executive Committee shall keep minutes of their proceedings which shall be dealt with according to the same procedure as that indicated in Part V of the Minutes of the Council.

The Executive Committee shall superintend the publication of the Pharmacist Register which shall be prepared by the Registrar who shall cause it to be printed after entering therein annually statement of the distribution of the copies of the Register to the State Government Officers as approved by the Government and the Pharmacy Council of India and to others as may be directed by the Executive Committee.

The Executive Committee shall order each year such number of copies of the Pharmacy Register to be printed as may seem to the Registrar to be required on a revision of the annual distribution list.

The Executive Committee shall consider and prepare reports upon any subjects that may seem to require the attention of the Council and such Reports shall be printed and circulated among the members of the Council ten days at least before the meeting of the Council.

The Executive Committee shall, before each meeting of the Council, prepare the business for the consideration of the Council.

The printing of the volumes of Minutes shall be under the direction of Executive Committee.

All petitions presented to the Council shall be referred to the Executive Committee to be examined and reported upon before being considered by the Council.

Subject to the provisions of the preceding rule, all petitions addressed to the Council immediately before or during the sessions of the Council shall be laid upon the table.

The Executive Committee shall prepare reports on such subjects as may be indicated to them by the Council at its sittings or by the President at other times. The reports when finally approved by the Committee shall be presented to the Council.
